To the Members of the Baker Family:

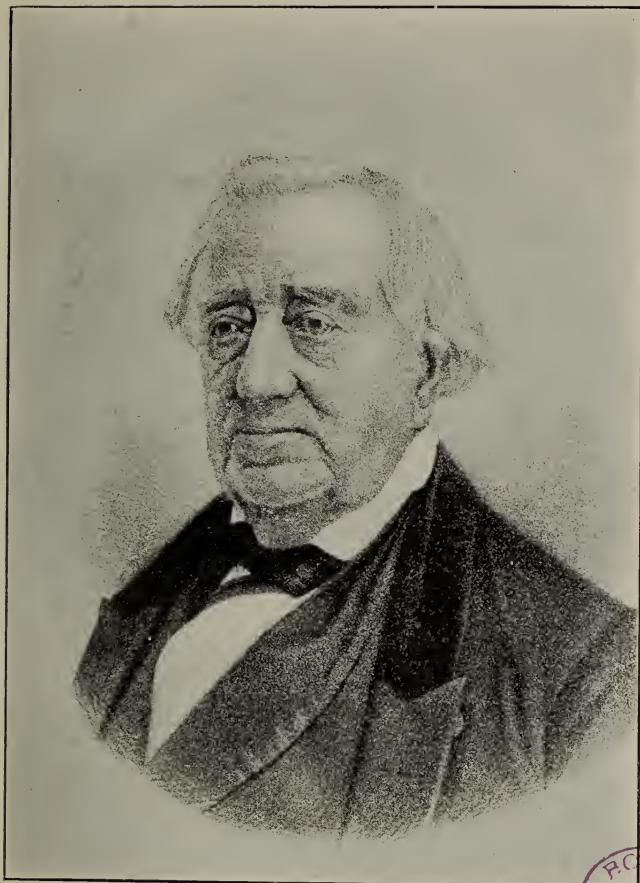

This publication is the result of the generosity of Lydia Amanda Copeland (23). It is her wish that every living descendant be provided with a copy for his or her own personal use, with her compliments. Should any additional copies be desired they can be obtained (until the limited edition is exhausted) by remitting 50 cents to the undersigned.

Sister Amanda particularly requests that each member will consider it a duty to keep a faithful record of all future family events, i. e., births, deaths and marriages, and that one of the "event slips" fastened in the back cover will be promptly filled out and forwarded for each "event" in order that the scattered members of the family may be brought into more intimate relations and the family history be continued and preserved.

Fraternally,

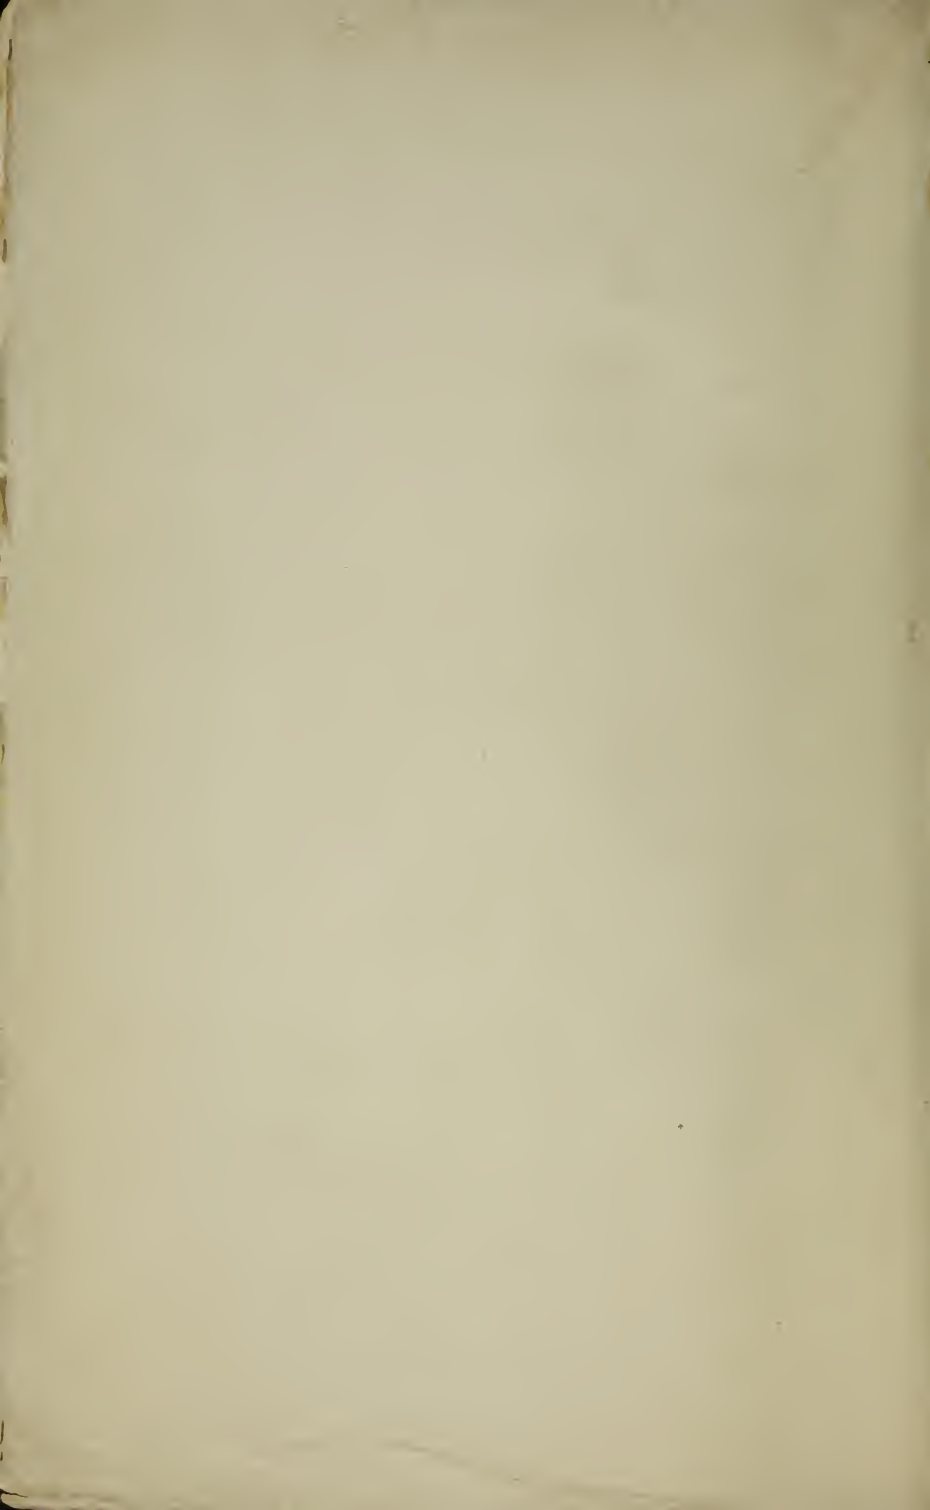

ELWOOD T. BAKER (27).

INTRODUCTION

A Genealogy of the Family of Deacon Smith Baker, of Litchfield, Me., son of Capt. Smith Baker, who was a brother of Eber Baker, was published in 1874 by Rev. Smith Baker, 3rd, D. D., of Lowell, Mass. In 1888, Charles, son of Eber Baker, added to the above and published "A Genealogy of the Family of Eber Baker."

This is a rearrangement and continuation of the foregoing, brought down to October, 1909, to which has been added a genealogy of Lydia Smith, wife of Eber Baker, taken from "A Genealogy of William Brewster," by Emma C. Brewster Jones, 1908.

Prefixed to the name of each member is the family key number. The number of digits contained in the key indicates the generation removed from the parent stock; the figures themselves show the branch or family rank, the female members being printed in smaller figures.

For example: 328 is the 8th child, a son, of the 2nd child, a son, of the 3rd child, a daughter, of Eber and Lydia Smith Baker. To ascertain the generation from Francis Baker or William Brewster, 7 or 8 respectively should be added to the number of figures in the family key. No. 328 is the 10th generation of Francis Baker's and the 11th generation of William Brewster's family.

By means of this key the various relationships between members of the family can be readily traced:

Parent and child—The latter contains one more figure and the same figures except the last: 22, 229; 562, 5625.

Brother and sister—The same number of figures and similar, except the last: 221, 229; 5622, 5625.

Uncle or aunt and nephew or niece—The latter must contain one more figure and all preceding the last but one the same: 6, 56; 24, 236; 141, 1422.

INTRODUCTION

First cousin—Equal number of figures and all preceding last but one the same: 24, 42; 113, 133; 2151, 2161; 32411, 32432.

First cousin once removed—One figure added to either of first cousin's key: 113, 1331.

Second cousin—One figure added to each of the cousin's keys: 1131, 1331.

It will be noticed that the first figure of every key indicates the branch from the first generation. George W. Baker, being No. 1, all his descendants will begin with 1; all Charles Baker's descendants with No. 2, and so on for every subordinate branch.

NOTE: Names printed in italics are members united to the family by marriage.

HON. EBER BAKER

Founder of Marion, Ohio, was born on a farm in what is now Bowdoin, Maine, at that time with Litchfield Corner forming a part of the territory of Hallowell, Me.

The graves of his grandfather, Barnabas Baker; his father, Capt. Smith Baker; and his brother, Deacon Smith Baker, are all side by side in the church yard at Litchfield Corner. He was born April 27, 1780, and at the age of 22, June 29, 1802, married Lydia Smith, whose sister Mary married his brother, Deacon Smith Baker.

Barnabas Baker (6th generation), his grandfather, married and lived in Yarmouth, Mass., about nine years, and in 1763 removed to Brownlyn, Brownington, Nova Scotia. After dwelling there ten years he removed in 1773 to Pownalboro, Me., where his three youngest of fifteen children were born. It was formerly said of Bowdoin and Litchfield that almost every one there was a Baker or a Smith, or a Smith Baker or Baker Smith, and the Bakers and Smiths have been intermarrying ever since (No. 16, 3rd generation; No. 233, 4th generation; see No. 271, 4th generation).

Eber Baker resided for a time at Gardiner, a town about ten miles south of Augusta, Me., and at the opening of the War of 1812, enlisted in the army. He soon became dissatisfied with the inactive life of the soldier, his regiment having been assigned to guard and camp duty, and he employed a substitute and resigned. In the early part of 1813 he decided to emigrate to the little-known country west of Pennsylvania, and with his family, consisting of a wife and five children, accompanied by his friend and neighbor, A. C. Priest and family, he journeyed to Boston. Here they purchased emigrant outfits and traveled in covered wagons all the way to Wheeling, Va., where he decided to settle down. He bought a farm but occupied it only a year, when he sold out and moved farther west to Newark, Ohio, arriving there in 1814. Here his youngest child, Lydia, was born. After a few years, he started on a prospecting tour in the interior of the state. Passing through Columbus and Delaware, he pushed on twenty miles north of the latter place, where he found a deserted log cabin sheltered under the slope of a hill, afterwards known as the "Hollow." The site suited him and he returned to Newark, purchased the land from the Government, sold out and removed in 1821 and laid out the town plat, naming it after the celebrated revolutionary general, Francis Marion.

"In his plat for the town he appropriated four lots for church houses, one for each of four different denominations; five lots for court house and jail, and several acres for a cemetery. He built a log jail at a cost of $400 and presented it to the county. When the Protestant Episcopal Church was ready to avail itself of a lot, Mr. Baker bought a lot at $620 and presented it to the church, besides $1,000 in money toward the erection of a building.

Mrs. Baker died June 24, 1843, lamented by all who knew her, especially by the poor and less fortunate, to whom she was always a generous and sympathetic friend. He was married a second time to Mrs. Susan Wilson, who outlived him many years.

Mr. Baker was public spirited, liberal in contributing to the various town enterprises, material, moral and religious, and was, during most of his life, with his second wife, a member of the Protestant Episcopal Church. He was a Representative to the Ohio State Legislature in 1826-27."

"The county of Marion, though named and defined by boundaries as early as 1822-3, was not organized until March 1, 1824. There was a sharp conflict for the county seat between Marion (the owners of the site), the owners of land two miles north, Big Island, Claridon, and a paper town called Bellevuron, five miles east of Marion. The Commissioners appointed by the State to make a selection were feasted and favored by the citizens in the respective localities. All the sites were examined and the award was given in favor of Eber Baker, probably on account of the ease with which water could be obtained on his land. This decision has resulted in giving Marion its present advantage over all competing points. The land two miles north and Bellevuron are now good farms; Big Island has never grown beyond its initial point; Claridon remains as the original nucleus. Even the capitals of neighboring counties are falling behind in respect to railroad facilities.”*

Marion is to-day one of the most prosperous and flourishing cities in the State. Eber Baker lived in Marion fifty-three years and died there October 6, 1864, at the age of eighty-four years.

REV. SMITH BAKER, 3d, D. D.

Rev. Smith Baker, 3d, the genealogist of the Baker family, was born in Bowdoin, Maine, February 18, 1836. He married at Northumberland, N. H., September 13, 1860, Isabella Ann Ditson, the eldest daughter of Alvah and Elizabeth Ditson, born in Wilton, Me., April 18, 1836. They reside in Lowell, Mass. Their son, Alvah Smith Baker, was born in Veazie, Me., March 13, 1862. Deacon Smith Baker, his father, (see last line on page 10 of this book), youngest son of Captain Smith Baker, was born in Bowdoin, Me., June 17, 1791; married Mary Smith, July 11, 1811. She was the sister of Lydia Smith Baker and was born in Litchfield, Me., August 24, 1791. Deacon Baker died in Litchfield, July 3, 1871. His wife died in Litchfield, May 27, 1867. Their children were:

Jonathan Sewell Baker, b. Dec. 26, 1812; d. Sept. 14, 1849;

Alden Baker, born October 9, 1815;

Sallie Smith Baker, born April 2, 1818;

Mary L. Baker, born March 17, 1823;

Smith Baker, born Feb. 14, 1827; died Sept. 5, 1832;

Smith Baker, 2d, born February 18, 1836.

In 1874, the Rev. Smith Baker, 3d, compiled and published "A Genealogy of the family of Deacon Smith Baker, of Litchfield, Maine," and in 1897 published "Additions and Corrections" to the same. For many years he has been indefatigable in his efforts to acquire the early history of the Baker family and is looked upon as an authority on such matters. To his enthusiastic labors the members of this family are indebted for the present work.

When a young man he espoused the cause of religion, like so many of his forefathers. He graduated at Bangor Theological Seminary in 1860, preached in Easton, Me., till 1870, when he was called to the First Church in Lowell, Mass. He continued here twenty years and in 1890 was called to the Park Avenue Church at Minneapolis, Minn. In 1894 he received a call from the Maverick Church in Boston, and returned to the east. In 1897 he was called to the Williston Church at Portland, Me.

He resigned in 1908 and now resides at Lowell. In 1891 he received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from Dartmouth College. He has been president of the State Association of Churches, of Minnesota, Massachusetts and Maine. He has also been Moderator of the State Sunday School Conventions of Minnesota, Massachusetts and Maine. He has delivered anniversary addresses at eleven colleges and at five theological seminaries and has acted as Moderator at sixty Ecclesiastical Councils.

Among the descendants of Mehitable Smith Baker, the grandmother of Eber Baker, there have been sixteen ministers, six ministers wives and eighteen deacons.

The following interesting letter was received from him on the receipt by him of a copy of this book last November:

"Your letter and book both received, for which many thanks. I have done nothing but examine it all day and am delighted. It is one of the finest things of the kind I have ever seen. The new features are particularly fine. It has cost you labor and patience and is an honor to your skill and the generosity of your sister. I am glad to see the pictures in it. The book is valuable. I want a copy for the Maine Historical Society in Portland, and the Maine State Library in Augusta. I hope you will send a copy to the Massachusetts Genealogical Society in Boston.

The work on the Brewster side is also valuable. Again, thanking you for your thoughtful kindness and wishing you God's blessing, I am sincerely "one of the tribe."

P. S. In your record of your grandmother, Lydia Smith, you did not include the names of her brothers and sisters (which is all right) but as perhaps you did not have them, you will find the following in the town history of Litchfield:

"Benjamin Smith and Elizabeth Sparrow Smith (your great grand parents and my grand parents on my mother's side) had twelve children, viz:

- 1 John, b. Oct. 8, 1771; married "Faith Smith";
- 2 Benjamin, b. March 1, 1773; m. Susanna Smith;
- 3 Elizabeth, b. Sept. 5, 1775; m. Thomas Smith;
- 4 Sarah, b. Aug. 12, 1777; m. Reuben Baker;
- 5 Lydia, b. June 29, 1779; m. Eber Baker;
- 6 Lois, b. Jan. 27, 1783; m. Isaac Chase;

REV. SMITH BAKER

- 7 Asaph, b. March 27, 1785; m. Rebecca Davis;
- 8 Joshua, b. June 7, 1787; m. Annie Tilton;
- 9 Reuben, b. July 23, 1789; m. Judith Springer;
- 10 Molly, b. August 24, 1791; m. Smith Baker, 2d;
- 11 Rachel, b. July 29, 1793; m. William Springer;
- 12 Isaac, b. Aug. 12, 1795; m. Esther Paul.

It will be seen by the above that three of the daughters married Bakers. Sarah, your grandmother's sister, married Reuben Baker, an uncle of your grandfather; Molly, my mother, married Smith Baker, 2d, your grandfather's brother. Thus, as my father and your grandfather were brothers and my mother and your grandmother were sisters, your father and I were not only first cousins, but double first cousins.

It seems to me that you and I are rather more than second cousins. So far as I know, I am the only one of the first cousins on the Baker side living, the only grandchild of Captain Smith Baker.

I have in my possession a silver table spoon which came over in the Planter in 1635 with Francis Baker. It was given to my grandfather (your great grandfather) in 1812, when he was a member of the General Court of Massachusetts from the District of Maine.

I have also Captain Smith Baker's writing desk, over one hundred years old. I am writing this letter upon it. I have an old bull's-eye silver watch which was Captain Smith Baker's. It must be over one hundred years old, but the hands are gone and the wheels broken. I have an old eight-day brass clock which was Captain Smith Baker's. It is one hundred and twenty years old and keeps good time. He gave it to my father and my father to me. I have also Captain Smith Baker's old bible, very much dilapidated."

In this connection it might be of interest to add that the old broad-ax, brought from the State of Maine, when Eber Baker emigrated to the west, is now in the possession of Robert Gilman Allen (243). It was presented to him by Charles Baker. By its aid Charles and George Baker hewed the timbers that were used in the construction of the first house built in Marion, O.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

This is the third couple in the Baker family who have had this honor. There were present the following members :

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

At the wedding dinner at which there were twenty-six seated, the following original toast was given by Sudie S. Baker (26) :

Here's to this couple so gray, but so gay,
Here's to this hour of this wonderful day,
Here's to "Gil" Allen and here's to his wife,
Let us do honor to their beautiful life.

Here's to the woman and here's to the man,
Here's to the race so worthily ran.
They've worked and they've toiled, for they've never been clods,
Now they've a kingdom in which they are gods.

Surrounded with children, they also with theirs,
Health, honor and happiness deservedly theirs.
Then drink to the present, Oh, care for it most,
The future's a vision, the past is a ghost,
Trust not the vision, fear not the ghosts,
Drink once to us all and twice to our hosts.
